

Community Development
& Health Network

Community Development Values Into Practice

This is a ½ day which will introduce participants to the values and principles within community development and how to apply this to their situation. Suitable for anyone who is new to community development work or to refresh knowledge.

