

Community Development
& Health Network

Engagement Practice

Participants have the opportunity to review their current engagement practice and begin to look at ways in which they can build relationships with those people or communities that find it difficult to engage through the present mechanisms. This explores the values of community development and relating this to practice.